Community Reviews From the Community 35 Comments No joke, this is the best, yes the best trading simulator I have ever played, Quote for this great software ;-) Customer Service Average Software Rating : What a great software, this is by far the best one on the market and there are a lot of other simulators that do not have the functionality or the user interface of Cute Trader I like its animation realistic or at least on the level of our imagination, its music and sound effects are the best ones so far You start with a nice short introduction, thanks for that, and then its

What's New In?

Cute Trader is an ultra realistic, easy to use day trading simulator that is 100% free. It covers all aspects of day trading from fundamental analysis through technical analysis, and risk management through to trading rules and market structure. There are so many things to learn, you will never get bored. You start with 30 trading rules, each one with a unique set of rules, and with every trade you get to open more. For example, the first 30 rules can be calculated in real time and the next 30 rules can be calculated after you start trading. So, you can modify the rules when you really know your market. You can invest your money in your trades or in your trading rules. You can read trading books to learn all the rules in Cute Trader. To keep you going, you can get Free Moneys on all of your trades. Plus, you can keep your Free Money a secret until the very end. * If you find Cute Trader useful and want to keep it free, then become a supporter by paying to the support wallet in the app, and get a FREE pledge pack with exclusive content: 2 Trading books + e-book + Access to early versions of Cute Trader The Right Way to Buy & Sell shares and currencies, without risking your own money I tell you how to trade currencies, index and equities at different exchanges (like ProCrypto, Bitfinex, Bittrex, Coinbase, Poloniex, CEX.IO, etc...), I tell you how to do it all in a "risk free" style. In this video I guide you to exchange.com. Exchange.com is an online trading platform where you can buy and sell stocks, CFDs, cryptocurrency and ETFs. The platform offers you the best tools to analyse the markets in a financial world simply built around you. Check how to use our FREEFINANCIAL TOOLBOX to find stocks, create your own or just check CURRENCIES, ETFs, Debt and Fixed Income portfolio to see how much money you can make. In terms of security you can benefit from real-time quotes (ask/bid), an internal Trading System (actually you are not allowed to place orders manually but you can specify parameters for your order flow), internal and Public news, direct access to exchanges (via private messages). The information is all there in an easy-to-use platform that makes trading vibrant. Video part:
